Frequently Asked Questions

Why should I apply?
The Maseno University eLearning programmes target people who are unable to make the time for full-time education yet need various certifications for professional and self-improvement. Consequently, participants are able to upgrade their skills and qualifications on the job as they progress through the Maseno University eLearning modules.

Who is eligible?
Programmes offered at the eCampus are tailored to meet the needs of working and other out-of-school people by providing high quality online modular diplomas and degrees to facilitate life-long learning. All applicants must meet the minimum application requirements of the programmes they wish to pursue.

How do I apply?
All applicants fill in and submit applications as instructed in the Maseno University eCampus web site http://ecampus.maseno.ac.ke. The applicant will immediately receive an e-mail acknowledging receipt of their application.

What is the mode of course work delivery?
Most undergraduate and post-graduate modules are fully online. A number of Continuous Assessment Tests (CATs) are also taken online. Certain modules are blended, including short periods of face-to-face contact with lecturers. All students registered for eLearning modules take sit-in examinations at the end of each semester.

Where will I sit my examinations?
Examinations and practical aspects of the module will be conducted at specified centres in Nairobi, Mombasa, Eldoret and Kisumu. Only students who are duly registered for individual modules will be allowed to sit examinations. More details on Maseno University Examination Rules and Regulations are available on the university web site.
